Fraternal Insurance Counselor - FIC

Designation granted by the Fraternal Field Managers Association (FFMA). The designation is awarded after completion of courses on fraternal benefit societies, ethics and fundamentals of life insurance and estate planning for individuals, families and businesses. An individual is required to work for a minimum of 12 consecutive months with a fraternal benefit society that is a member of the American Fraternal Alliance and the FFMA.

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, civil or disciplinary events to disclose regarding Mr. Laws. Mr. Laws has never been involved in any regulatory, civil or criminal action. There have been no lawsuits, arbitration claims or administrative proceedings against Mr. Laws.

Securities laws require an advisor to disclose any instances where the advisor or its advisory persons have been found liable in a legal, regulatory, civil or arbitration matter that alleges violation of securities and other statutes; fraud; false statements or omissions; theft, embezzlement or wrongful taking of property; bribery, forgery, counterfeiting, or extortion; and/or dishonest, unfair or unethical practices. As previously noted, there are no legal, civil or disciplinary to disclose regarding Mr. Laws.

However, we do encourage you to independently view the background of Mr. Laws on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching with his full name or his Individual CRD# 4671932.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Broker-Dealer Affiliation

Mr. Laws is also a registered representative of Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments, Inc. ("PKS"). PKS is a registered broker-dealer (CRD# 35747), member FINRA, SIPC. In Mr. Laws's separate capacity as a registered representative, Mr. Laws will typically receive commissions for the implementation of recommendations for commissionable transactions. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendation provided by Mr. Laws. Neither the Advisor nor Mr. Laws will earn ongoing investment advisory fees in connection with any products or services implemented in Mr. Laws's separate capacity as a registered representative. Mr. Laws spends approximately 10% of his time per month in his role as a registered representative of PKS.

Insurance Agency Affiliations

Mr. Laws is also a licensed insurance professional. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from Mr. Laws's role with Thrivent. As an insurance professional, Mr. Laws may receive customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold. Mr. Laws is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This may cause a conflict of interest in recommending certain products of the insurance companies. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by Mr. Laws or the Advisor. Mr. Laws spends approximately 10% of his time per month in this capacity.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Mr. Laws has additional business activities where compensation is received that are detailed in Item 4 above.

Item 6 – Supervision

Mr. Laws serves as a Wealth Advisor of Thrivent and is supervised by David Belotte, the Chief Compliance Officer. Mr. Belotte can be reached at (612) 844-8444.

Thrivent has implemented a Code of Ethics, an internal compliance document that guides each Supervised Person in meeting their fiduciary obligations to Clients of Thrivent. Further, Thrivent is subject to regulatory oversight by various agencies. These agencies require registration by Thrivent and its Supervised Persons. As a registered entity, Thrivent is subject to examinations by regulators, which may be announced or unannounced. Thrivent is required to periodically update the information provided to these agencies and to provide various reports regarding the business activities and assets of the Advisor.

Chartered Financial Analyst ("CFA®")

The Chartered Financial Analyst ("CFA®") charter is a professional designation established in 1962 and awarded by CFA® Institute. To earn the CFA® charter, candidates must pass three sequential, six-hour examinations over two to four years. The three levels of the CFA® Program test a wide range of investment topics, including ethical and professional standards, fixed-income analysis, alternative and derivative investments, and portfolio management and wealth planning. In addition, CFA® charterholders must have at least four years of acceptable professional experience in the investment decision-making process and must commit to abide by, and annually reaffirm, their adherence to the CFA® Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct. CFA® is a trademark owned by CFA® Institute.

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ ("CFP®")

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP® (with flame design) marks (collectively, the "CFP® marks") are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP® Board").

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 71,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP® Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP® Board's financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP® Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP® Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, civil or disciplinary events to disclose regarding Ms. Laws. Ms. Laws has never been involved in any regulatory, civil or criminal action. There have been no client complaints, lawsuits, arbitration claims or administrative proceedings against Ms. Laws.

Securities laws require an advisor to disclose any instances where the advisor or its advisory persons have been found liable in a legal, regulatory, civil or arbitration matter that alleges violation of securities and other statutes; fraud; false statements or omissions; theft, embezzlement or wrongful taking of property; bribery, forgery, counterfeiting, or extortion; and/or dishonest, unfair or unethical practices. As previously noted, there are no legal, civil or disciplinary events to disclose regarding Ms. Laws.

However, we do encourage you to independently view the background of Ms. Laws on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching with her full name or her Individual CRD# 5680395.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Insurance Agency Affiliations

Ms. Laws is also a licensed insurance professional. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from Ms. Laws's role with Thrivent. As an insurance professional, Ms. Laws may receive customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold. Ms. Laws is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This may cause a conflict of interest in recommending certain products of the insurance companies. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by Ms. Laws or the Advisor. Ms. Laws spends approximately 10% of her time per month in this capacity.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Ms. Laws has additional business activities where compensation is received that are detailed in Item 4 above.

At TAN, Ms. Laws receives compensation for providing investment advisory services that is primarily based on a percentage of fees charged on assets under management for investment management services and/or a percentage of fees charged for financial planning and consulting services.

Ms. Laws may, from time to time, receive additional compensation or other economic benefits; such as, sales awards, recruiting and training support services, expense reimbursement, software, bonuses or non-cash compensation (e.g., attend sales conferences and other recognition events) for providing investment advisory products or services.

Ms. Laws may be eligible to receive compensation for referring individuals who become Advisory Persons of TAN. The compensation paid to the referring Advisory Persons is based on the referred individuals becoming Advisory Persons of TAN and revenue from investment advisory fees earned by them.

Thrivent Advisor Network, LLC
600 Portland Avenue South, Suite 100, Minneapolis, MN 55415
Phone: (612) 844-8444 | <http://thriventadvisornetwork.com>

In certain instances, TAN may provide for a cash bonus or other economic benefit to Ms. Laws based on the number of new clients that purchase certain eligible products and services, including advisory products and services. This additional compensation is based on the number of Ms. Laws's new clients who become members of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans because the clients bought a membership-eligible product, retention of assets, and or their sales volume of specific products and services.

Item 6 – Supervision

Ms. Laws serves as a Wealth Advisor of Thrivent and is supervised by David Belotte, the Chief Compliance Officer. Mr. Belotte can be reached at (612) 844-8444.

Thrivent has implemented a Code of Ethics, an internal compliance document that guides each Supervised Person in meeting their fiduciary obligations to Clients of Thrivent. Further, Thrivent is subject to regulatory oversight by various agencies. These agencies require registration by Thrivent and its Supervised Persons. As a registered entity, Thrivent is subject to examinations by regulators, which may be announced or unannounced. Thrivent is required to periodically update the information provided to these agencies and to provide various reports regarding the business activities and assets of the Advisor.
